

Dangerous Games

Across

- 4. in sports, a specific contest in a series of contests, as in horse racing.
- 6. anything designed or provided for a particular use.
- 8. to leap into the air.
- 11. the process or act of competing.
- 12. to plunge or fall downward rapidly, usu. head or front first.
- 13. a narrow, open boat with curved sides and pointed ends, usu. propelled by paddle.
- 15. a deed of daring or spirit; feat.
- 18. willingness to take risks; boldness.
- 19. a cross-country footrace of about twenty-six miles.
- 20. soaked, moistened, or covered with water or another liquid.

Down

- 1. a set of clothes consisting of a jacket and trousers or a skirt, usu. made of the same material and color.

2. cord a strong elastic cord with hooks on each end, used to strap things down on the roof rack of a car or the like.
3. to move over snow on skis, esp. as a sport.
4. beyond or to the outer limit.
5. a hard covering worn to protect the head from impact.
7. to contend against others to win a desired goal or achieve a desired result.
9. to gain release from worry, tension, or inhibition.
10. to spring back or up following a collision, or to do so several times in succession.
11. to move upward; go towards the top; ascend.
13. a destructive impact or collision, as of one or more vehicles.
14. in good bodily condition; healthy and vigorous.
16. a large device made of strong, thin cloth and attached cords in a conical arrangement, forming an umbrella that slows the descent of a person or heavy object, esp. one that has jumped or been dropped from an airplane.
17. ocean waves that break on the shore or other land barriers.