CELEBRITY DANNIELLA GETS OUT OF JUNGLE

Danniella Westbrook today walked out on I'm A Celebrity, Get Me Out Of Here! The former EastEnder went missing from the jungle camp during the night, leaving viewers of the live ITV2 series baffled about her whereabouts when they tuned in this morning. Later, programmes' makers revealed Westbrook had left the jungle camp after tearful farewells to the other stars. The former cocaine addict told producers she couldn't cope with another day on the TV show. She was reunited with husband Kevin and her two children at a luxury hotel in Australia. Sian Lloyd, who was evicted by viewers yesterday, told GMTV: "I have so much sympathy for her and so much admiration. She was missing her family and her husband big time. "I am quite confident that Danniella is absolutely fine now, and that she is in the arms of her husband, and that she has talked to her children." Westbrook is expected to be replaced by either former Blue Peter presenter Tim Vincent or Page Three girl Jodie Marsh, who have been on stand-by in Australia since the series started last week.
