I Live For You (George Harrison)

All alone in this world of mine,
Not a care for this world have I,
Only you keep my eyes open wide,
Yes, it's true, I live for you.

Not a thing in this world do I own,
Only sadness and mourn that is grown
In this darkness I wait for the day,
Yes, it's true, I live for you.

Through many tears I've wait,
Through many tears I've weeped.

All this time my thoughts return to you,
Give my love that is all I can do,
Wait in line till I feel you inside,
Yes, it's true, I live for you

Through many years I've wait,
Through many tears I've weeped.

All this time my thoughts return to you,
Give my love that is all I can do,
Wait in line till I feel you inside,
Yes, it's true, I live for you.
